

Sample Introduction Information

Here is a sample introduction for your host / MC.

It may help your audience feel they are getting your moneys worth

Feel free to use as much or as little as you like. But please let me see the final version before the event.

Thanks.

---

Our next presenter is a feature comedian, commentator and recipient of the 'Billy T' Award - as well as being voted 'Comedian of the Year' by his peers,

He is a crowd favorite live, in print, on television and radio and tours his unique blend of kiwi comedy up to 20 festivals a year in a several countries.

His fresh, critically acclaimed material proved to be of the highest international standard.

Here are some options:

In a recent debate two pure white doves flew to his feet when he began speaking. True story. What can I add to that?
Please welcome to the stage... Mike Loder

If you were avoiding talking to the weirdo next to you on an Air NZ flight, you would have heard him on their comedy channel.
Please welcome to the stage... Mike Loder

If you are very old you may be familiar with his work on National radio with the popular 'Off the Wire' show and the Jim Mora hour.
Please welcome to the stage... Mike Loder

You may have seen him betraying his art with Holmes and Hosking on some lowbrow panel show.
Please welcome to the stage... Mike Loder

I will wear a wheelchair so you can find me on the night.